Nastassja Kinski

one of the finest creatures I have ever seen

Madame Nastassja let me express my veneration.

You say you want to make something really good for the world ... I say you already DID IT. Lao Zi says 'Be an example to the world', I dare to say you already DID IT. In my view you are part/embodiment of the Mystic Female.

Your personality is beyond my comprehension since 1990, for more than 20 years you are one of the very few true, sensitive and really kind creatures who give me faith to go on.

It hurts looking how this chaos torture the pure creatures like you. It is so hard for me to see innocence under all kind of disgusting attacks.

So please do not torment yourself with the ugliness of this world.
